

And what if you made the most important donation of your life...
Make a donation for the future of physical rehabilitation.

Example of a codicil

I, (your name), residing at (your complete address), attest that this document represents the (first, second, third), codicil to my will, dated (date).

I bequeath

(The totality/A portion representing the exact sum of $) of my moveable and immoveable property that has not been disposed of under the presents, in a codicil added to the presents, or in any other manner, after deduction of debts, pecuniary legacies, funeral expenses, estate taxes and administrative fees (residue of the estate).

The REA Foundation is a registered charitable organization, located at 6300 Darlington Avenue, in Montréal, and registered under the number 11911 4783 RR0003. This legacy shall be used for general charitable purposes. I declare that the receipt issued by the REA Foundation shall constitute a valid and sufficient discharge.

In all respects, I confirm the validity of the present will and all its preceding codicils.

In witness whereof, I signed, at (city) on this (day) of (month and year) in the presence of witnesses.

(Your name)

We attest, by our joint presence and our respective signatures, that this is the (first, second, third) codicil to the signatory's will.

First witness

Second witness

(Name of the first witness)
(profession)
(complete address)

(Name of the second witness)
(profession)
(complete address)

To guide you in your process, we encourage you to consult a legal or financial advisor.